OUR HISTORY

It all began in a small garage in 1949 with two hard-working Midwesterners—John Bolton & Martin Menk.

They saw people in their surrounding communities who had dreams of a bright future, a desire to grow, and a common challenge of aging infrastructure. John and Martin's goal was to help communities make progress by listening to what people want, finding the best solutions for their needs, and treating them right. Their legacy lives on.

OUR FOCUS

Bolton & Menk specializes in providing public infrastructure solutions. We want to take care of our clients by providing the best services and solutions for them. From advocating for our communities, to designing their dreams, to finding funding; we take pride in our work. We believe in the power of face-to-face meetings, friendly conversations, and a collaborative decision-making process to keep your projects on schedule, within budget, and focused on real, workable solutions.

“Communities come to us with complex problems. I love that we can give them options and clarity, and experience that ‘A-Ha moment’ with them.”

Marcus Thomas, Principal Engineer

OUR PURPOSE

Thanks to the solid foundation built by John and Martin, our core values remain the same today. We believe that all people should live in safe, sustainable, and beautiful communities—it's why we get out of bed in the morning. We're real people offering real solutions.

“Communities come to us with complex problems. It's astounding how we've been able to grow over the years without losing focus on what the company was founded on, the services and those personal relationships.”

Dave Martini, Principal Engineer
